

Colectiva Legal del Pueblo is a non-hierarchical collective organization founded for and by undocumented immigrants working to build community leadership and power for migrant justice through legal advocacy and education.

Colectiva Legal del Pueblo was founded in November 2012 by a group of undocumented community organizers, activists and immigration attorneys who recognized the need to create an organization that provides legal support while building community power for migrant justice. We provide legal advocacy, community education, and support to immigrant communities, as well as legal support, in general.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Position Title: Staff Attorney
Location: Burien, WA
Hours: Full-time, may include evenings and weekends

POSITION SUMMARY

Colectiva Legal del Pueblo (CLP) is hiring for a full-time staff attorney. Our immigration services include U-visas, Asylum and family petitions as well as representing clients in detained and non-detained removal proceedings. This position is based out of our Burien, WA office and may require some statewide travel. At the moment, our office has a hybrid work plan, with staff working remotely from home and from our Burien office, with limited in-person, socially distanced services. Some in-office work will be required for this position.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE POSITION

1. Because CLP is a non-hierarchical organization, all staff members play a key role in collective duties within the office including: daily operations, organizational development and governance.
2. Provide direct legal representation in immigration matters before the Seattle and Tacoma Immigration Courts (EOIR), Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA), the Ninth Circuit Court

- of Appeals U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), and Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), and state custody proceedings.
3. Conduct presentations, workshops, legal clinics and individual consultations in English and Spanish.
 4. Provide support to community organizing projects and deportation defense campaigns in coordination with family members of clients and grassroots community partners.
 5. Maintain and establish relationships with community-based organizations, community partners, immigration service providers, policy/advocacy groups and coalitions relevant to CLP's work.
 6. Ability to work evenings and weekends when necessary.
 7. Perform other tasks as required.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE REQUIRED FOR THE POSITION

1. Admitted to the bar of any state in the U.S. (Washington State preferred).
2. Knowledge of immigration law and 2 or more years of immigration law practice preferred, especially experience in removal defense, appeals, U-visa and family petitions.
3. Fluency in Spanish required. The position requires the ability to communicate daily through oral and written communication in both Spanish and English. Fluency in additional languages is preferred.
4. Experience providing direct legal services to clients in crisis, as clients will include survivors of trauma who have experienced domestic violence, sexual assault, human trafficking, torture, and other forms of violence.
5. Must have the ability to work independently, solve problems and must be able to prioritize tasks, work well under pressure and meet tight deadlines.
6. Applicant must have a valid driver's license and/or access to reliable transportation as the position involves some travel, particularly to the Northwest Detention Center in Tacoma and Immigration Court in downtown Seattle.
7. Demonstrated commitment to immigrant rights and social justice issues.

SALARY & BENEFITS

Salary is $72,392/year plus annual cost of living salary increases. As a nonhierarchical collective, all employees, regardless of their position, start at the same salary, with cost of living increases each year and additional increases at an employee's two-year and four-year anniversaries. Benefits package includes health and vision insurance, paid state bar dues, professional development & membership fees, and generous paid time off, vacation and sick leave.
